It was a trip I'll never forget. My wife and me decided to go by car to the mountains with our daughter. These mountains were famous for beautiful flowers. We all liked flowers and I spent several years on studying different kinds of flowers so I knew all of them. 50

Although it was summer I put on my striped cap and a thick coat and my wife was wearing woolen blanket and a scarf. She didn't need a cap because her hair was long. 54

As we were driving to the mountains getting higher and higher bewildering sites got closer to our eyes. My wife advised me to stop for a minute. 'We could take a great photo' she said. I agreed of course and we got out of the car. 57

As we got out of the car we felt the bizarre mountain air filling us. It was really challenging not to fall down because your head seems to go around on fresh air. 63

By this time I heard my daughter's voice calling me: "Daddy, look!" So I rushed over to her. She was holding out a flower that I have never really seen! For the first time I felt really confused when she asked me what kind of flower it was. And the little ignorant child turned out to be paying more attention to the surrounding nature than me! This fact made me really proud of her! 237
