Small town, big changes

Shlisselburg is a small town which is situated near St. Petersburg. Fifty years ago this place suffered from many problems: the town was incredibly boring, polluted environment was making this place unattractive for tourists. Nowadays everything is different.

1. How do local people live?

People who live in Shlisselburg are surprised by the changes that the town went through. It was a very dull place, now it has everything they wished for. Clean environment makes the town safe for all its inhabitants. Also the town provides good education for children: nowadays schools have innovative technologies and softwares. Favourite place of all ^{many} the local people is a shopping centre which has not only shops and cafes but also relaxation zones which are especially loved by the visitors.

2. Do you like history?

The biggest tourist attraction in Shlisselburg is the Oreshek Fortress. You can take an excursion there to find out ^{some} interesting facts about Russian history.

3. Places of interest.

Another interesting place in this town is a beach at the Ladoga lake. At the beach you can swim in the lake, sunbathe or just relax. However, there is something special. You can get on a board of a flying vehicle that can take you above the lake and show you the town. If you go high enough, you might even see St. Petersburg below the clouds.
