Enchanting town of Vyborg.

Vyborg is one of the oldest towns in northern Russia and its history goes back to 1293. But now, 777 years later, it is completely different from its 13th century self.

Places of interest:

Some things never go obsolete, and the old part of the town is one of them. Despite the large number of sights, Vyborg Castle still captures the most attention. People from all over the world come ~~here~~ here to watch tournaments, which are held every summer.

Food and drinks:

Once you enter the town you don't have to worry about hunger. Catering business is flourishing on the streets of Vyborg. You can try traditional "crendels" and gingerbread figures, as well as modern cuisine near the Red and Market squares.

Travelling:

In 2043, Vyborg partially integrated with Finland, so both Russian and Finnish government are responsible for the town. Since then, most of the motor vehicles were abandoned in favour of bicycles, because of high taxes and in order to save ecology of this place.

Work, study and free time:

Most citizens go to the newly opened anti-cafes to work, study and even to spend free time. However, there is more culturally valuable place to do so. The library of Alvar Aalto stores unique books and online working ~~could~~ ^{can} be done on PC's with recently updated software.

All in all, Vyborg is attractive to everyone because of low prices, unique sights and collaboration with Finland. You will not regret your visit!
